The Hot Noodle Ridiculous Rap Rhyme

by AtticusCrete

Summary

So, somehow, the Hot Noodle AU went from a cute mini fic to one with a song, to one which will have a second part (Are those Gyoza going spare?) to a rhyming promise of fluff, more fluff, and so much fluff there's enough for several duvets/down comforters plus pillows for everyone in the fandom.

I have even less of an excuse for this one.

Notes

For some lovely fannibals who made the mistake of being encouraging by commenting on this series, or another one, or who have sent me little cheery comments on tumblr, or have rec'd me - all I can say is, ha! Reckoning :-) thank you so much, I promise never to do this again.

We just wanna wallow
Cos we all love marshmallow
We just want some fluff
Of angst there is enough

So come on write some love
Make it fluff fluff fluffy fluff
No more hurt or sorrow
Love today/tomorrow

Make it super sweet
With fluff and then repeat
Lots of happy squeee
We just need some glee

Happy Hannigram please
Don't be a horrid sticky tease
We want to laugh along
With a cheery snoopy song

No metaphors or grims
Gaslighting, or bad crims
We promise we'll subscribe
Join the happy noodle tribe

So write some fluff and jello
We'll laugh and be all mellow
This could go on and on
And would that be so wrong?

So settle in and smile
This might take a while!
